ABOUT MITCHELL'S PLACE Mitchell's Place is a caring, supportive, family-oriented treatment center that serves individuals throughout Alabama whose lives have been touched with Autism Spectrum Disorder. At Mitchell's Place, we believe that every individual should have the opportunity to reach his or her fullest potential. Therefore, it is the goal of Mitchell's Place to optimize the social and academic potential of children and adolescents diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder. In meeting this goal, we will provide diagnostic services, treatment, and education, as well as family and community support, through a collaborative approach, utilizing the most current and proven treatment strategies.

ABOUT MITCHELL'S PLACE JUNIOR COUNCIL (MPJC) The Junior Council began in January 2008 and is a group of young professionals (ages 22-40) in the Birmingham area who wish to support those children and families affected by Autism Spectrum Disorders. We do this by supporting Mitchell's Place Autism Treatment Center through fundraising and social events. Through our efforts and events our goals are to aid Mitchell's Place in providing the highest quality services for children with autism while at the same time increasing autism awareness to our peers and the public by providing an enjoyable social atmosphere for Birmingham's young professionals.
